Conditions membership Bols Hole-in-one Club

A hole-in-one must be saved from oblivion. This is why the Bols Hole-in-one Club has already been recognised and registered since 1927. In order to qualify for a free and life-long membership of this historic club, your hole-in-one will have to meet the following conditions:

Conditions hole-in-one

- The hole-in-one is scored during a full round of at least 9 holes on a course with a minimum length of 1375 metres, under qualifying conditions and in the presence of at least one co-player.
- An exception will be made for a hole-in-one that is scored during an official game over a connected round of 9 holes.
- The maker of the hole-in-one should must be registered at an internationally recognised Golf Federation and should have a minimum age of 18 years.
- The minimum length of the hole-in-one stroke should be 100 metres for men and 80 metres for women, based on the length as stated on the score card.
- A hole-in-one made on wintergreen is invalid.
- Also when the hole-in-one is made on a foreign course, all above-mentioned conditions should be met.

Procedure

If your hole-in-one meets all above-mentioned conditions, you must officially report the event within a period of six months. For this purpose the following procedure applies:

- The completed score card or a copy of this card is signed by the player him/herself, by at least one marker/witness and by the secretary of the club where the hole-in-one has been hit.
- The signed score card must be sent, together with the appropriate official registration form, to the Bols Hole-in-one Club. The score card is returned after registration.
- The new member will receive an official confirmation of the membership and a Bols Hole-in-one welcome pack.

Application forms are in many cases available at the secretariat of the course or club in question. You can also download the form via www.bolsholeinone.nl.

De registratie van uw Bols Hole-in-one zal uiterlijk 4 weken na indiening bevestigd worden.
